I'll be honest and say I miss Snakewood. At least the madress gave me a little better material to work with. It's weird, isn't it? Chapter 8 - Freezing Karma Last Time on Dark Rising 2, a lot of crap happened. I'll leave it at that. It depends. Is a mission to save the world against my will considered a good deed? We are so too prepared for this next bat and I love it. A: Oh, that must be interesting. ... It's a neat idea. How does DRG actually pull it out?: Bad touch. Triple Soul should be a 200 power attack that combines the powers of the Sigurd family into one giant fuck-off fireball from the aura. Seeing as it's just measly Wigglytuff, Siegfried spares her and just goes for a zen headbutt. Interesting fact: The coach was stealing from the store before... What a rebel! She fears that the Arctic Mirage will put an end to her life. : Why is that? Explorer: The route beyond this... It's a nightmare. But only for some people. The route we are on is called the Meadow of Karma. When someone follows this path, they will judge. If you have good karma, the route after that will not be a problem. However, if you have bad karma, the next path will be to take your life with a slow, painful death being frozen. We believe this is the work of the Order of Pokemon. Okay, but you lost me when you brought up pokemon of the Order. You know this guy: Why is this such a problem? Sigard is /same type as Corinne. Anything to do with their kryptonite, so please God tell me how Siegard created a space where people who suffer from bad karma freeze to death? Like that shit? This is even worse than the fairy-type explanation from the last chapter because of how inconsistent it is! In any case, the Meadow of Karma would be the territory of Currem. But no - Sydney had to catch him in the first game. This is what happens when you don't properly plan your stories. Good people see a little snow, bad people are crushed by ice stones. Riveting. This lady is the one everyone's talking about here. Do you remember that family out of the way at the beginning of the game with two kids and dad who told us not to participate? Well, it's Mom. She had bad karma, but she managed to survive the next route, surprisingly. It ended up with her getting separated from her children and husband... I admit this is one of the best written under-stories in the series yet because DRG builds it from the start of the game, and this (sort of curious) foreshadows this part of the game. Oh, and she gives us Fly too. Good shit. You're going to lose. What the fuck, we're in sync now. That's how I felt about the coaches the whole game and honestly? That's 100% true what she's saying. If the world is now in a lot of trouble now and Monica had to go and keep it, hordes of random trainers challenging her for no reason will ultimately slow her down. Nice going, random NPC #50, you ended up destroying the world because you detained Monica for a few A: I don't know a person, I'm not in a good mood and you don't have to stay behind it. A: Moving out of my way, thief. I don't have time for your stupid games. Monica Savage. A: It was a spurt that needs to be said. Guess you're not as good as you seem when you're not around your friends. : I don't care. All I care about is revenge for all the people Darugis has suffered. I tend to be against Monica suddenly getting angry and stuff, but this is one of the few times when it is fully justified. Darugis has a boozey life of everyone in one way or another, the main character in particular had to go through a huge list of trials and, on top of everything else, one of her best friends turned against her for no reason. Plus? Jalis was a bitch from start to finish, so Monica doesn't really have a reason to turn to her either. : So that's what drives you, right? That's it? Would you do anything to get this? : Yes, now move! A: With this attitude, I wouldn't be surprised if you did a ton of cruel things. I bet the Arctic Mirage won't let you live. Oh, let's do it. : Says a man who steals everything and lives on the street. What's wrong? Scary to take another step because you know you'll be entering the Arctic Mirage grounds? I wouldn't put life on the streets like what it should be held against, but yes the theft part is accurate. I love that in the game Monica has finally grown a couple. I stole from Granite first! Children's hysteria, steals without remorse, hypocritically through guilt... Are you sure Monica's a bad guy here, man? If it's a special Pokemon you stole from the Granite, I'm disappointed. That wouldn't be a problem even if we didn't get a power boost in the last chapter. Goodra looks like a teddy, and I want it. Big dragon snail hug. Super Fennekin falls for my own cute little devil. As a note, Jalich's dedication to Fennekin's defense seems to be her only positive trait. Honestly? She has a pretty hideous past, so there really isn't much to take care of her if she is captured or killed or something. Seviper is predictable as ever and that caps it. The feeling is mutual, baby. But I can tell something's happened to you since the last time I saw you. You better get these demons out of you before you do what you regret and the Arctic Mirage takes your life. This place got its name from a group of travelers many years ago. People with good karma have not seen anything - in principle, it repeats the same information as before, but now it has to do with the plot. : You don't frighten me. : Hehe, we'll see. I hope you get frozen death and then your body is crushed by an ice boulder! Just like ... My brother... Hold up. You're serious. I can't help but laugh at how ridiculous it all gets. A: Hey buddy, would you mind if I had something to check on you? I'm crazy with power, and it feels so good that poor Ferrothorn died. I can't feel my body! You are welcome... I ask for one last last before I die. : Whatever you want, man. Ninja cut-out on stage after that I'm going to die here because of my actions in the past... It all comes back to haunt me. : (Wait, Monica ... I don't know about that.) : Ah? What's going on, Sigurd? : (It's just ... if it judges us for our past affairs... then maybe I should stay behind.) What? Come on, she just said it to scare us. There's no blizzard strong enough to hurt you anyway, so what are you worried about? A: (I'm not proud of what I did.) : Sigurd, you as the nicest person I've ever met. Chill out. Wait, sorry, I didn't mean to-- : (... Well, intentionally or not, it was pretty bad. Well, I trust you.) : Of course, the dummy. It's really painful, but imagine what money these photos would sell if this guy didn't have enough shiteel to freeze over himself. When we die, we'll meet this weirdo. : Yes. ????. Okay. It's refreshing to see someone in this place who hasn't lost his mind. I don't know why the game tried to create that something bad would happen to Monica when it was obvious that she would be fine. : Where does the building lead behind you? ????: To the Prince of the Sea, Manafi. My name is Hall, the leader of the city of Gital, otherwise known as the eighth head of the gym of the Omni region. The gate behind me is closed to people like you, I'm afraid. I know, don't I? I'm sorry, I'm sorry. Hall: You may not suffer like others here, but you are not a saint. Guilty. : No one is there. Hall: Exactly... no one but me. The prince of the sea adorns only those who are pure from the heart. You still have negative emotions inside you. Come back after you've given up on them. Monica is silent with an uncool grimace Okay, Mr. Aqua Jedi, I think you know what you're talking about. Seeing how perfect you are and that's it. I kind of lost here. Same thing, but it's for many reasons than just an invisible blizzard. Why should we always fight even in places where people have died and so on? There's such a thing as being dead. Moral of the day: Be a good man or a horde of Bergmita will eat your frozen corpse. This lady tells you about three legendary birds and it's great... but I don't see how they have anything to do with this place. It would make sense if Articino created this perverted space where people with bad karma turned into popsicles... but no, let's sieg do it. Wild Weavile and Soroark, however. Two of my favorite dark Pokemon in one place? How could I not : (Stay there. You're the legendary Sigurd, aren't you?) : (I wouldn't say legendary, but ...) : (Oh, don't be so humble. Yours and Monica, to be exact.) A: (We were on our way to stop everything that was going on in the city ahead, but we don't have a coach to take care of us... more, that is.) : ... Anymore? A: (It's pretty personal, so we'll leave it as it is. Could you let us help you?) : Hell yes, man. What is your name? : (I'm Beowulf and this is my wife Linura. : (Also, you two are the only ones who make sense in this terrible region...): Thank you. I can't disagree, to be honest. I wouldn't expect it to be a tropical adventure with that name. Besides, is it just me or does she really not know how to pronounce the Arctic? The first time may have been referred to as a typo, but she continued spelling it arctic instead. Also, hello Benga. Yadda yadda I'm going to kill Noah, the same spire we went through before. OOOOH is good It's like a zombie Tyrantum with the way bootleg it looks, good god. Even Ovus didn't look so bad. He and his companions bite the dust into the wrong time flat thanks to our thick strength. Heatan still have no chance and I'm still wondering how Benga managed to do anything. What's going on here?! Benga is denser than the ocean, my God. I got the wrong idea about these Pokemon. They're evil, and I'm going to prove it! Dude, go silly somewhere else. I don't have time for you. At least it was brief. Mercy is all I can really ask for in a place like this. The blue dude in the blue cave is better to be important. : I have to pass, excuse me. Monica's not rude anymore. Blue Cap Man: Hmm ... You're Monica, the Omni League champion. : I'm not a champion. I just beat the champion, Adrian. But... Don't you - you wrote off Adrian, one of the strongest coaches in the world. Yes. Here's how it works, Monica. : I'll go now. Blue Cap Man: You don't look like the Monica I heard about. Dude. A: I don't care what you heard. Blue Cap Man: No, you're not that coach at all. All you're going through that created this negativity you give, just remember that there are people out there going through things as well. The world doesn't just revolve around you. Shot. She calmly asked you to step aside, and in your infinite wisdom, you decided to anger her even more by embarking on a higher moral footing, because she did not act the way you wanted. Besides, how do you know she's got her luggage right now? Are you psychic or something? A: Well, it's this the battle you want? Let's get this off. Blue Cap Man: No, I don't want to fight someone like you. Not until you're Monica, who beat Adrian again. But know it... My name is Nathan and I'm the main contender for a title you don't even want to own. A lot of coaches like me work hard for what you have. I'll be sure to take it off your hands when you get back to yourself. What, are you her number one stalker or something? Jesus fuckin' Christ, this guy was barely around for one screen and he's already worse than Jalice! Uh, Let's just move on. Cryogonal has always been a strange Pokemon for me. It's a giant, intelligent weeping snowflake monster... it's also You had to remind me of Explorer games and how I could play them, not that. Now I'm crying. Avalugg is another strange Ice Pokemon that is like the physical equivalent of Cryogonal. I don't particularly like him. You can get some rubbish here if you really want them. I can't complain about the free revival though. Remember the Incident with the Great Pearl from the first Dark Rebellion? A glitch that involved an infinite number of spawning ones if you just walked away from the treasure chest? This has been corrected, unfortunately. Although I'll take it that there's some funky shade in the top right corner there. It doesn't look right. Isn't it easy for every patch of grass and cave in the Pokemon universe? Monica is swallowed again by the earth. The sands layers are getting smart on me. Ultra balls are good, I think. Not as I have that much benefit to them anymore. Noah had let the Swords of Justice out of his party before, and they all ended up in different caves. You can get them if you like, but I personally're not going to get them. Against? Please tell me we're going to find a couple of shirtless guys who own a distributor gun. This would make this game go from zero to the perfect top ten fast. Rest is great and all, but we are such a powerhouse that it doesn't even matter. The square jaws on these guys are cracking me. They look so stupid. I'm sorry to break this to you officer, but ... My eyes stagger from all this white without any other color in it, but step-black outlines. It's just disgusting. Oh no, the hooded guys are here, and they're blocking our path. What are we going to do? We'll get to these two a little bit. He's so dreamy, O-M-G! I met this man and I wanted to barf. You can force him if you want. This guy says we can take his rare candy if we can move the boulder that's behind the scenes. Thanks for the offer, but we are already covered on this front. Altheim City, right? Is there really another spy spot in the Omni region? This is both Pokemon Center and Mart. Neat things! Snow on the ground, sun in the sky. Should the sun be now? This place is so poorly painted that it looks cloudy 24/7. They're going to pull Twinrow on us. I'd be worried about it if it weren't for the fact that Mr. Cuckoo is back! You know, between you and me, she's not as scared as she's trying to be. I know you feel the same way! Come on, I won't tell you! : Who are you and why one of your thoughtless zombies in this city? ????. Now, without a name call! He is part of a world full of wonders! He's just a minion who worships his god! A: Oh yes, who is his god? The Citadel of Punta What... well it wasn't such a big surprise, but still what : Do you know about Darugis! ????. No, I know about Darugis though! Hehehehe... My name is Mason. It's nice to meet you again, Monica. I'm a cult leader. A cult that represents a true god! : You're in control. Mason: Controlled? Wait wait! I am What's it! Mind-Transfer Jutsu! Hahahahaha! : You have Let's fight! Mason: Battle with me? Don't you think it would be smarter to fight my henchmen near the Infinite Garden? That's where these gym leaders are. I'd hurry up, too, my henchmen just love to break these poor Cloister shells and stab them in the eye. They'll do competitions to see who would kill the most Cloysters, you know? : You're sick! I'll be back later to deal with you. : (Isn't he adorable though? : Darugis?! Don't tell me you're behind this! A: (Actually? I'm not. He decided to follow me on his own will, and he seemed to be a much more interesting case than most other people I encountered. A: All to get the thrill, right? : (Guilty.) Oh, my God, this is Paul from the Pokemon anime. This is one rival who tortured his Chimchar to abuse the power of Blaze, although it is a terrible idea. We really needed a cameo from him all the people. Well, I can't argue with that. We're beat him up for Ash, I suppose. Although Weavile had it to go to Pokemon, his Gastrodon got into a bigger problem than I expected. Thank God for Beatrice - I wish Roserade existed in this default hack. When that day comes, the results will be different. : Don't be angry, but no. Unfortunately, even this beautiful snow won't make this area look better. It's so reassuring. She says it after I've knocked them out. You'd think there would be a big reaction to that. Sudowoodo can hardly take a little water ... and here comes the positive effect of Garchomp and Superman Lucario are ready to beat him just because his coach decided to throw him into the ring. What a miserable existence. Now it's spicy Made worse as it acts. Well, here's a great set of action pieces for this chapter. Let's wash it off. (Also say hello to two little munchkins who are totally non-Tate and Lisa with blue and red hair.) What are you doing here with these guys?! If... Hooded Creatures: Everyone welcomes Darugis! Everyone welcomes Darugis! : (It's like music to my ears.) Brandon: The ritual is over! Ritual? What's going on here? Blaze: Hey, whoever you are. If you're good at Pokemon battles, don't you mind giving us a hand? Isis: Are you asking for help, bro? Is this usually my thing? I'll cut to the chase and just sum up: Monica ponders that Darugis should be getting more powerful (now that's a terrifying thought given what he's already done) if someone like Brandon's borderline brain got swayed to his face. Then Monica commits the ultimate faux pas and says she will destroy Brandon and his Pokemon, although obviously the poor thing is just being manipulated. Then he taunts Monica about the promise of V's kids, I get a little sick in my mouth, and we move on, they're heeelping Brandon on the evil side now and you know what that means. Hilariously re-ing up the first stage of Pokemon. I don't know what's up and down with this game anymore. This Omanyte can have sekret kung fu art... or is it even be Lord Helix himself. You can never give you a chance. Regigigas is a cool looking legendary who is usually delayed by a slow start, but here he doesn't have such a thing. It hits damn hard. Example: Sigurd of all people got reamed. Every time something like this happens, I remember that it is strong, but unstoppable. Aura Saber whips Reggie into shape though... and not a minute earlier, because if he got another one off, that would actually curtails for Super Lucario. Brandon has Regis under his belt, with Registeel getting crushed in the Corin earthquake. Unlike the stomachs of Triple Soul from Siegfried thanks to this insane 200 Special Defense... But he couldn't survive too. Yes, I'm cheeky. Brandon says it was too late and that the ritual was over. He is not exempt from his possession... which leaves Monica wondering what the hell went wrong. When you combine this with the whole Darkrai-fied Pokemon thing, it's starting to get a little funny. It's as if Darugis has a personal army not only of criminals, but also of spawning himself and a fanatical cult. I would like to play shit from a real game that has a plot like that, especially if it's Pokemon. Isis: Ag ... we beat them, but they didn't shut up! Brandon: We can back off at the moment! The mission is complete! The twins wonder what Brandon and his pack of thugs are up to in The Infinite Gardens. They mention that the gardens are the home of the Lati Twins, leaving me to wonder what Darugis would like with the more legendary. Honestly, it would be really cool if the Lati Twins were plot relevant and connected in the themes of the two leaders in Contra City, but no. As a reward for beating Brandon, you get rain dance and access to the garden. Cheers. Hell, let's just take to the gym so we can say we did it. Yes. More quizzes, only this time there is nothing exceptionally stupid this time. They give their banter and say they won't hold back just because we helped earlier. Bring it, kiddos. For one thing, I love it whenever stories do all the fire and ice dynamic, even if it's kind of overlapped. On the other hand, their names kill me. Blaze is obvious enough, but Isis? Like the Egyptian goddess? Dude, Isis has nothing to do with cold or frost. It achieves, but at least it's better than her brother. True to its dynamics, the twins fridge and oven quotes. The mouth is very popular in the Omni region, it seems. Again these strange figures. I know it's our health in a different format, but it looks so weird. Shame the Rotoms should have gotten beaten by Sigurd and Corinne, however. Everyone else suffers from a void bomb and stone edge combo. Honestly with all the things we do for our opponents, you'd think we were the bad guys after all... because it's sure, not fair, not sir. Not that I'm complaining. Oh, please, kids. You're giving it to yourself. Lots of credits. They'll give us the Contra badge and the Fire Explosion. It's a thought that matters. They argue about the types of some of the And we'll get away with it. They are easily the most interesting gym leaders in the game, but they are still kinda meh. Well, it's better than nothing. We make our way to the Infinite Garden, which is not covered with snow this time. (Thank God too, because my eyes couldn't take much more of that.) Good advice, Mr. Seag. Next time on Dark Rising 2, we're going to do some fun things before the real descent into the madness begins. See you later. Setting up the team: (Corin, level 85, /) - I can't disagree with Monica. All this would get to me too, if I were her. (Sigurd, level 92, /) - Well then. After all, I didn't freeze to death. How about that. (Siegfried, level 85, /) - Of course you didn't, stupid! You need to have more self-confidence. (Wave, level 87, , ) - This Mason guy really scared me. (Bellamin, level 84, , ) - He was of course ... Off. I don't think I've ever seen someone that unhinged before. (Beatrice, level 84, /) - I'm glad we don't have to fight it, but I'm afraid that Monica and Sigurd couldn't release that Frontier Brain man. ----- Reserve Team: (Signe, level 87, /) - Keeps Rubus over his head with a smile (Arthur, level 86, /) - Darugis has amassed quite an army. We could be a little more than here... (Gail, level 84, /) - They may have an advantage in numbers, but we beat them in quality. I would like to see them take me on. (quote, level 81, /) - Monica looks pretty angry. What happenzzt? (Ambe, level 81, , ) - Not sure, but I can't help but sympathize with her. This Nathan guy didn't seem like the best person... (Johnny, level 47, , ) - She must have been rude. (Shadow, level 60, /) - Looks around for intruders (Rubus, level 25, , ) - Aaa-! Don't let me go! (Ignell, level 82, /) - Hello, Beowulf and Linoura. What brings you to our happy group? (Candelabra, level 82, /) - So when you say you're without trainers... Does that mean you had to leave or... (Beowulf, level 56, , ) - No, nothing like that, but ... (Linura, level 60, /) - We had to escape with our lives. I'm not sure our coaches are still alive, to be honest. That's why we do everything from us to help the areas that are the target of this vile force that everyone seems to be fighting. (Iris, level 60, , ) - Oy, Well, it's a good thing you found us, yes. (Lucera, level 60, , ) - Hmhhh. Monica seems to know what she's doing... Page 2f'm going to be frank and say I'm a kinda Miss Snakewood. At least the madress gave me a little better material to work with. It's weird, isn't it? Chapter 8 - Freezing Karma Last Time on Dark Rising 2, a lot of crap happened. I'll leave it at that. This lady tells you about three legendary birds and it's great... but I don't see how they have anything to do with this place. It would make sense if Articino created this perverted space where people with bad karma turned into popsicles... but no, let's sieg do it. Wild Weavile and Soroark, however. Two of my favorite dark Pokemon in one place? How could I not : (Stay there. You're the legendary Sigurd, aren't you?) : (I wouldn't say legendary, but ...) : (Oh, don't be so humble. Yours and Monica, to be exact.) A: (We were on our way to stop everything that was going on in the city ahead, but we don't have a coach to take care of us... more, that is.) : ... Anymore? A: (It's pretty personal, so we'll leave it as it is. Monica. Could you let us help you?) : Hell yes, man. What is your name? : (I'm Beowulf and this is my wife Linura. : (Also, you two are the only ones who make sense in this terrible region...): Thank you. I can't disagree, to be honest. I wouldn't expect it to be a tropical adventure with that name. Besides, is it just me or does she really not know how to pronounce the Arctic? The first time may have been referred to as a typo, but she went on to write it Artic Also, hello Benga. Yadda yadda I'm going to kill Noah, the same spire we went through before. OOOOH is good It's like a zombie Tyrantum with the way bootleg it looks, good god. Even Ovus didn't look so bad. He and his companions bite the dust into the wrong time flat thanks to our thick strength. Heatan still have no chance and I'm still wondering how Benga managed to do anything. What's going on here?! Benga is denser than the ocean, my God. I got the wrong idea about these Pokemon. They're evil, and I'm going to prove it! Dude, go silly somewhere else. I don't have time for you. At least it was brief. Mercy is all I can really ask for in a place like this. The blue dude in the blue cave is better to be important. : I have to pass,

excuse me. Monica's not rude anymore. Blue Cap Man: Hmm ... You're Monica, the Omni League champion. : I'm not a champion. I just beat the champion, Adrian. But... Don't you - you wrote off Adrian, one of the strongest coaches in the world. Yes. Here's how it works, Monica. : I'll go now. Blue Cap Man: You don't look like the Monica I heard about. Dude. A: I don't care what you heard. Blue Cap Man: No, you're not that coach at all. All you're going through that created this negativity you give, just remember that there are people out there going through things as well. The world doesn't just revolve around you. Shot. She calmly asked you to step aside, and in your infinite wisdom, you decided to anger her even more by embarking on a higher moral footing, because she did not act the way you wanted. Besides, how do you know she's got her luggage right now? Are you psychic or something? A: Well, is this the battle you want? Let's get this off. Blue Cap Man: No. I don't want to fight someone like you. Not until you're Monica, who beat Adrian again. But know it... My name is Nathan and I'm the main contender for a title you don't even want to own. A lot of coaches like me work hard for what you have. I'll be sure to take it off your hands when you get back to yourself. What, are you her number one stalker or something? Jesus fuckin' Christ, this guy was barely around for one screen and he's already worse than Jaice! Uh. Let's just move on. Cryogonal has always been a strange Pokemon for me. It's a giant, intelligent weeping snowflake monster... It's also a mirror. You had to remind me of Explorer games and how I could play them, not that. Now I'm crying. Avalugg is another strange Ice Pokemon that is like the physical equivalent of Cryogonal. I don't particularly like him. You can get some rubbish here if you really want them. I can't complain about the free revival though. Remember the Incident with the Great Pearl from the first Dark Rebellion? A glitch that involved an infinite number of spawning ones if you just walked away from the treasure This has been corrected, unfortunately. Although I'll take it that there's some funky shade in the top right corner there. It doesn't look right. Isn't it easy for every patch of grass and cave in the Pokemon universe? Monica is swallowed again by the earth. The sands layers are getting smart on me. Ultra balls are good, I think. Not as I have that much benefit to them anymore. Noah had let the Swords of Justice out of his party before, and they all ended up in different caves. You can get them if you like, but I personally're not going to get them. Against? Please tell me we're going to find a couple of shirtless guys who own a distributor gun. This would make this game go from zero to the perfect top ten fast. Rest is great and all, but we are such a powerhouse that it doesn't even matter. The square jaws on these guys are cracking me. They look so stupid. I'm sorry to break this to you officer, but ... My eyes stagger from all this white without any other color in it, but step-black outlines. It's just disgusting. Oh no, the hooded guys are here, and they're blocking our path. What are we going to do? We'll get to these two a little bit. He's so dreamy, O-M-G! I met this man and I wanted to barf. You can force him if you want. This guy says we can take his rare candy if we can move the boulder that's behind the scenes. Thanks for the offer, but we are already covered on this front. Alheim City, right? Is there really another spy spot in the Omni region? This is both Pokemon Center and Mart. Neat things! Snow on the ground, sun in the sky. Should the sun be now? This place is so poorly painted that it looks cloudy 24/7. They're going to pull Twinrow on us. I'd be worried about it if it weren't for the fact that Mr. Cuckoo is back! You know, between you and me, she's not as scared as she's trying to be. I know you feel the same way! Come on, I won't tell you! : Who are you and why one of your thoughtless zombies in this city? ??? : Now, without a name call! He is part of a world full of wonders! He's just a minion who worships his god! A: Oh yes, who is his god? The Citadel of Punta What... well it wasn't such a big surprise, but still what : Do you know about Darugis?! ??? : No, I know about Darugis though! Hehehehe... My name is Mason. It's nice to meet you again, Monica. I'm a cult leader. A cult that represents a true god! : You're in control. Mason: Controlled? Wait wait! I know what it is! Mind-Transfer Jutsu! Hahahaha! A: You have a problem. Let's fight! Mason: Battle with me? Don't you think it would be smarter to fight my henchmen near the Infinite Garden? That's where these gym leaders are. I'd hurry up, too, my henchmen just love to break these poor Cloister shells and stab them in the eye. They'll do competitions to see who would kill the most Cloysters, you know? : You're sick! I'll be back later to deal with you. : (Isn't he Although? He's like some evil, mentally unstable cat.) : Darugis?! Don't tell me you'. You will. This is! A: (Actually? I'm not. He decided to follow me on his own will, and he seemed to be a much more interesting case than most other people I encountered. A: All to get the thrill, right? : (Guilty.) Oh, my God, this is Paul from the Pokemon anime. This is one rival who tortured his Chimchar to abuse the power of Blaze, although it is a terrible idea. We really needed a cameo from him all the people. Well, I can't argue with that. We're beat him up for Ash, I suppose. Although Weavile had it to go to Pokemon, his Gastrodon got into a bigger problem than I expected. Thank God for Beatrice - I wish Roserade existed in this default hack. When that day comes, the results will be different. : Don't be angry, but no. Unfortunately, even this beautiful snow won't make this area look better. It's so reassuring. She says it after I've knocked them out. You'd think there would be a big reaction to that. Sudowoodo can hardly take a little water ... and here comes the positive effect of Garchomp and Superman Lucario are ready to beat him just because his coach decided to throw him into the ring. What a miserable existence. Now it's spicy Made worse as it acts. Well, here's a great set of action pieces for this chapter. Let's wash it off. (Also say hello to two little munchkins who are totally non-Tate and Lisa with blue and red hair.) What are you doing here with these guys?! If... Hooded children: Everyone welcomes Darugis! Everyone welcomes Darugis! : (It's like music to my ears.) Brandon: The ritual is over! Ritual? What's going on here? Blaze: Hey, whoever you are. If you're good at Pokemon battles, don't you mind giving us a hand? Isis: Are you asking for help, bro? Is this usually my thing? I'll cut to the chase and just sum up: Monica ponders that Darugis should be getting more powerful (now that's a terrifying thought given what he's already done) if someone like Brandon's borderline brain got swayed to his face. Then Monica commits the ultimate faux pas and says she will destroy Brandon and his Pokemon, although obviously the poor thing is just being manipulated. Then he taunts Monica about the promise of V's kids, I get a little sick in my mouth, and we move on. they're heeeeelping Brandon on the evil side now and you know what that means. Hilariously re-ing up the first stage of Pokemon. Of course, I don't know what's up and down with this game anymore. This Omanyte can have sekret kung fu art ... or it could even be Lord Helix himself. You can never give you a chance. Regigigas is a cool looking legendary who is usually delayed by a slow start, but here he doesn't have such a thing. It hits damn hard. Example: Sigurd of all people got reamed. Every time something like this happens, I remember that it is strong, but unstoppable. Aura Saber whips Reggie into shape though... and not a minute earlier because if he another turn off that would actually curtains for Super Lucario. Brandon Brandon Regis under his belt, with Registeel getting crushed in the Corin earthquake. Regice the stomachs of Triple Soul from Siegfried thanks to this insane 200 Special Defense... But he couldn't survive two. Yes, I'm cheeky. Brandon says it was too late and that the ritual was over. He is not exempt from his possession... which leaves Monica wondering what the hell went wrong. When you combine this with the whole Darkrai-ified Pokemon thing, it's starting to get a little funny. It's as if Darugis has a personal army not only of criminals, but also of spawning himself and a fanatical cult. I would like to play shit from a real game that has a plot like that, especially if it's Pokemon. Isis: Ag ... we beat them, but they didn't shut up! Brandon: We can back off at the moment! The mission is complete! The twins wonder what Brandon and his pack of thugs are up to in The Infinite Gardens. They mention that the gardens are the home of the Lati Twins, leaving me to wonder what Darugis would like with the more legendary. Honestly, it would be really cool if the Lati Twins were plot relevant and connected in the themes of the two leaders in Contra City, but no. As a reward for beating Brandon, you get rain dance and access to the garden. Cheers. Hell, let's just take to the gym so we can say we did it. Yes. More quizzes, only this time there is nothing exceptionally stupid this time. They give their banter and say they won't hold back just because we helped earlier. Bring it, kiddos. For one thing, I love it whenever stories do all the fire and ice dynamic, even if it's kind of overplayed. On the other hand, their names kill me. Blaze is obvious enough, but Isis? Like the Egyptian goddess? Dude, Isis has nothing to do with cold or frost. It achieves, but at least it's better than her brother. True to its dynamics, the twins fridge and oven quotes. The mouth is very popular in the Omni region, it seems. Again these strange figures. I know it's our health in a different format, but it looks so weird. Shame the Rotoms should have gotten beaten by Sigurd and Corinne, however. Everyone else suffers from a void bomb and stone edge combo. Honesty with all the things we do for our opponents, you'd think we were the bad guys after all... because it's sure, not fair, not sir. Not that I'm complaining. Oh, please, kids. You're giving yourself too much credit. They'll give us the Contra badge and the Fire Explosion. It's a thought that matters. They argue about the types a few more, and we leave. They are easily the most interesting gym leaders in the game, but they are still kinda meh. Well, it's better than nothing. We make our way to the Infinite Garden, which is not covered with snow this time. (Thank God too, because my eyes couldn't take much more of that.) Good advice, Mr. Seag. Next time on Dark Rising 2, we're going to do some fun before the real descent into the madness begins. See you later. Setting up a team: (Corin, level 85, ) - I can't disagree with All this would get to me too, if I were her. (Sigurd, level 92, /) - Well then. After all, I didn't freeze to death. How about that. (Siegfried, level 85, /) - Of course you didn't, stupid! You need to have more self-confidence. (Wave, level 87, , ) - This Mason guy really scared me. (Bellamin, level 84, , ) - He was of course ... Off. I don't think I've ever seen someone that unhinged before. (Beatrice, level 84, /) - I'm glad we don't have to fight it, but I'm afraid that Monica and Sigurd couldn't release that Frontier Brain man. ----- Reserve Team: (Signe, Level 87, /) - Keeps Rubus over his head with a smile (Arthur, level 86, /) - Darugis has amassed quite an army. We could be a little more than here... (Gail, level 84, /) - They may have an advantage in numbers, but we beat them in quality. I would like to see them take me on. (quote, level 81, /) - Monica looks pretty angry. What happenzzt? (Ambe, level 81, , ) - Not sure, but I can't help but sympathize with her. This Nathan guy didn't seem like the best person... (Johnny, level 47, , ) - She must have been rude. (Shadow, level 60, /) - Looks around for intruders (Rubus, level 25, , ) - Aaa-ai! Don't let me go! (Ignell, level 82, /) - Hello, Beowulf and Linoura. What brings you to our happy group? (Candelabra, Level 82, /) - So when you say you're without trainers... Does that mean you had to leave or... (Beowulf, level 56, , ) - No, nothing like that, but ... (Linura, level 60, /) - We had to escape with our lives. I'm not sure our coaches are still alive, to be honest. That's why we do everything from us to help the areas that are the target of this vile force that everyone seems to be fighting. (Iris, level 60, , ) - Oy. Well, it's a good thing you found us, yes. (Lucera, level 60, , , ) - Lmmm. Monica seems to know what she's doing... Do... walkthrough pokemon dark rising 2 gba bahasa indonesia
